

Mark Your Calendars. Plan to Attend.

34th Annual National

Organics Recycling Conference

Wednesday October 2 – Friday October 4, 2024
Niagara Falls, Ontario

Call for Papers

Join your organics recycling colleagues from across Canada and internationally to learn and network your way to ever-greater operational and market success.

The Compost Council of Canada is inviting proposals for presentations and workshops addressing advances in organics recycling and end-use markets.

Topics can include with additional proposals also welcome:

- Regulatory & Policy Directions
- Organics Recycling Infrastructure Developments
- Research Discoveries
- Processing Advances, Collection Methods, Technology
- Compost, Digestate and Biochar Markets
- Compostable Claims and Products
- Putting Organics Recycling to Work

Please submit a short description of your intended topic and a speaker biography to Danielle at info@compost.org.

Deadline: Friday June 14, 2024

Thank you for contributing to the advancement of organics recycling in Canada

Organics Recycling is the greatest of solutions.

Whether your focus is waste diversion & landfill management, greenhouse gas reductions, soil health & productivity, green energy, water & biodiversity conservation, carbon sequestration, local environmental stewardship or climate change mitigation & resiliency,

Organics Recycling does it all.

Come join us at our 34th Annual Organics Recycling Conference

Tours + Presentations + Exhibits + Networking =

Organics Recycling
Conference
Niagara Falls, Ontario

October 2nd to 4th, 2024